Do you want me to cry, cry for you?
How can you say that you're blue
A rich rock star you are
Yet you still complain, that's insaneImagine if you had a child of two You're a single mom, son named Tom
Work a long hard day to bill pay
With no time to play then what would you say?Still in this world what it means to me
Losin' my grip as I trip on anomalies
My third eye is the prize of unifyin' Horus
The Pleadies will smash out of TaurusEnergy pure decompose in the porous
Soil of life moving on it's courses
Crystals 'neath the surface radiate the cycle
Combining minerals they will flex and let goToxically we're built to never last
'Cause the waste we make all day
Steady growin' fast
I get up an' take my blue green algaeI better penetrate it
Strengthen my grasp
Holistic healers dealin' our galactic growth
Reversin' FX of shit wrecked ChernobylWhy take it further
Take that love further
Why take it further
Take that love furtherWe've all got pain that's real
We should say how we feel
And I've felt so alone
But I know I've always got a home
The question I'm up serving is am I really deservingGamma waves bacterial plagues cow mutilations
All the time not to mention visitations
More than 2000 years of fuckin' with our fears
The only thing true we gotta love each otherTry to keep a positive vibe they make it tough for ya
You're cut off and lonely while you hustle for dough
We can overcome the wrongs while we're reachin' the point
Stick together all forever now continue to flowWhy take it further
Take that love further
Why take it further
Take that love further
