

Gun Clap Hero

Hanni El Khatib

Gun clap hero ain't holding back
Bodies on the floor he's right on track
He'll shoot you down if you're in his path
He did it all for the bang bang
All for the bang bangGotta stay quiet
Can't speak up
Watch for the sirens
They follow usEverywhere that I turn, I see them
In the squad cars lookin' like demons
That's why the gun stays close
Trust nobody in plain clothesGun clap hero ain't holding back
Bodies on the floor he's right on track
He'll shoot you down if you're in his path
He did it all for the bang bang
All for the bang bangWhy run away
???????
Don't need to be here
When the bullet sprayWhy run away
???????
Don't need to be here
When the bullet sprayGet the flow when gun claps
Get the flow when gun claps
Get the flow when gun claps
Get the flow when gun clapsGun clap hero ain't holding back
Bodies on the floor he's right on track
He'll shoot you down if you're in his path
He did it all for the bang bang
All for the bang bangGun clap
Gun clap
